

New Mexico State Senator
DEDE FELDMAN

A LOOK INSIDE THE WORKINGS OF NEW MEXICO STATE LEGISLATURE

From One Who Knows

JANUARY 4 | 2 PM

Former New Mexico state senator, Dede Feldman, will join us at Placitas Community Library on January 4 at 2 PM. Always an inspiring speaker, Senator Feldman will draw upon her book, Inside the New Mexico Senate: Boots, Suits, and Citizens, which is now regarded as a classic.

Feldman will review issues likely to come up in the 2025 session in the context of how the legislature works to kill or pass bills. She will give us an insider's look at how to effectively engage with our legislators and the legislative process.

Feldman is the author of several books. Her memoir, Ten More Doors: Politics and the Path to Change was the subject of a previous talk at the library. Feldman emphasizes the role of individual advocates and ordinary citizens in effecting change at the legislative, as well as all levels of government.
